Course start - independent learning project

At the start of your course, you will take a business assessment. This will allow us to assess your business aptitude, commitment and suitability to the course.

You will need to independently study basic Business topics and watch relevant teaching videos. You may also be tested on simple numeric calculations. You will need a simple calculator (non-scientific is fine) rather than using your phone for these calculations. The videos for each topic area are located in the table below - although you may want to complete your own further research to deepen your understanding if you wanted to.

1st task – WHAT DO I NEED TO DO?

Watch the THREE videos below carefully. Make notes and get ready to be assessed on these videos upon starting your course. Use the TEMPLATE below to make your notes.

Business Topic	Links to resources	How this will be used
Introduction to finance	CLICK HERE	Introductory video on how business finance works
Internal sources of finance	CLICK HERE	Looking at the different ways businesses can obtain money from inside the business
Types of business ownership	CLICK HERE	Looks at the different types of business forms

Part A of the test

You will be required to answer some questions based on the three videos above. Watch them carefully and make notes using the template below.

Part B of the test

You will be given business scenarios based on the three videos above and be expected to answer questions and apply some business principles to your answers.
